Hymn words

Climb, climb up Sunshine Mountain, Heav'nly breezes blow;

Climb, climb up Sunshine Mountain, Faces all aglow,
Turn, turn your back from doubting, Look up to the sky;
Climb, climb up Sunshine Mountain, You and I.

Majestic mountains rising before us,

Lifting the spirit, clearing the head
Praise the creator for the vast arches;
Creations mystery, timeless and wise

Fount of the rivers, rushing t'ward oceans,
Refuge and shelter, teaming with life:
Praise the creator for the deep canyons,
Beautiful valleys, landscapes of hope.

Before the mountains, awestruck and humbled,
We are invited, called to rebirth.
Praise the Creator for Holy vision,
Calling for purpose in all who see.

Look to the mountains from whence your help comes.
Study their wisdom, learn from their strength.
God is your keeper, life source and helper.
The Lord stays with you for ever more.

Introit 4th November

For all the saints who've shown your love,
in how they live and where they move.
For mindful women, caring men,
accept our gratitude again.

For all the saints who loved your name,
whose faith increased the Savior's fame.
Who sang your songs and shared your word,
accept our gratitude, good Lord.

For all the saints who named your will,
and showed the kingdom coming still.
Through selfless protest, prayer and praise,
accept the gratitude we raise.

Bless all whose will or name or love
reflects the grace of heaven above.
Though un-acclaimed by earthly powers,
your life through theirs has hallowed ours.

(tune O Waly Waly)
